State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Everett Hunt was born on February 4, 1913, in Nebraska and moved to South Dakota as a young boy; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Everett built his farm and ranch operation 20 miles from Murdo where he and his wife, Violet, raised their eight children;

Whereas, Everett's love of animals keeps him busy caring for a horse and several stray cats; and

Whereas, Everett will observe his 90th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as his friends and relatives gather to honor him and celebrate his life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a man who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 16, 2003, as
